The Dry Blower

composed by Western Australian accordion player, Bob Rummery; named after the waterless gold prospecting method

The musical score for 'The Dry Blower' is presented in four staves. The key signature is D major (two sharps) and the time signature is 6/8. The melody is written in a treble clef. Chord markings (D, G, A) are placed above the notes to indicate the accompaniment. The first staff begins with a repeat sign. The second and fourth staves end with double bar lines and repeat dots. The piece concludes with a final double bar line and repeat dots.

Please acknowledge the composer if you use this tune.
