

Bold Jack Donahue Lament

Written for his primary school play 'Jack Donahoe' by John Dengate and set to a variant of 'Cruiskeen Lawn'.

Dm C A
Bold Jack Don - a - hue, now we bid fare-well to you'

Dm F A
Your wild bush-rang - ing days are at an end.

F Am C Gm
From the moun-tains to the sea you de - fied au - thor - i - ty.

Dm A Dm A F Gm
A friend to all the pris' - ners in the gangs and gaols in the

Dm A Dm
col - - on - y of New South Wales.

F Am C Gm
Lay him in his grave, Don - a - hue the brave.

Dm A Dm A F Gm
Gaze a fin - al time u - - pon his face and

Dm A Dm
lay him in his rest - - ing place.