

Old Bush Shanty

The song was written by Jack O'Hagan (1898 ~1987) in 1924. He was an Australian singer-songwriter and radio personality who published some 200 songs including 'The Road to Gundagai' and 'Our Don Bradman'.

C G F G C D7
You can bet I'll be set when I get back to that old bush shan-ty of mine

G7 F G F G D7 G
There I'll be, where I'll see folks so dear to me and ev-ery - thing will be fine

C F
There'll be broth - er and sis - ter, old mum and grey-haired dad

D7 G7
I know they're just the great - est pals that I have e - ver had

C F
And I hope, pray, and sigh I'll be there un - til I die

C G7 C
In that old bush shan - ty of mine